Dear Sir/s:

PRESS RELEASE

“CCCL reports 21% growth in Turnover

Receives ISO 14001:2004 & OHSAS 18001:2007 certification from Bureau Veritas
Certification (India) Private Limited.

Chennai, Apr 29, 2009: Consolidated Construction Consortium Ltd (BOM.532902), an integrated construction services provider having projects in the industrial, commercial, infrastructure and residential space has announced its audited annual results for FY 2008-2009.

For the year ended 31.03 09, the total revenue, on a standalone basis stood at Rs. 1755.86Crores (2008: 1448.10 crores) and Profit after Tax (PAT) stood at Rs. 69.05 Crores compared to Rs 87 09 crores for the previous year.

Total revenue on a consolidated basis is Rs 1841.31crores (2008: 1475 74 crores), consolidated Profit after tax (PAT) is Rs 72.80 crores (2008: 88.88 crores) whereas EPS at consolidated basis is Rs. 19 70 (2008: Rs 25.34). Due to the general economic slowdown, some of the clients either cancelled or truncated contracts to an extent of around Rs 700 crores. Consequent up on the cancellation/truncation the company was forced to absorb the overheads which it had built-up resulting in the lower PAT.

Mr. Sarabewar, Chairman & CEO, CCCL Ltd said, "Despite the rapid slowdown, we have managed to contain the setback with the Profit after Tax at Rs 69 05crore compared to Rs 87 09 crores for the previous year. With our positive perception, we have maintained the dividend and the operating profit ratio. We are consolidating our presence in the infrastructure sector. Our recent infrastructure and other automobile projects have strengthened our portfolio. We are confident of scaling new heights in the coming years."

The order backlog as of 31st March 2009 is Rs. 3322.65 Crores

Business highlights

3. Overall growth in turnover 21% compared to previous year
4. Overheads were not fully absorbed, due to cancellation / truncation contracts to the tune of Rs 700Crore resulting in lower PAT
